The Bryan County NAACP is pleased to provide information about the many ways to participate in support of the 2nd Annual Scholarship Golf Tournament.

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIPS

Tournament proceeds support the BCNAACP Higher Education Scholarships which were developed to assist highly motivated, intrinsically driven students who strive for academic and community excellence. Based on the number of applicants, BCNAACP will award scholarships of up to $2000 to high school seniors attending Richmond Hill High School and Bryan County High School graduating in the 2022-2023 school year. Students with a cumulative GPA of at least 2.50 based on the 4.0 grading scale may apply.

ABOUT THE MAY 5, 2023 GOLF TOURNAMENT

Registration: 11:30am. Shotgun start: 1:00pm.

Registration fee for individuals: $150. Foursome fees: $600.

Fee includes lunch prior to shotgun start, beer, drinks, snacks on the course, and award ceremony.

WAYS TO PARTICIPATE

1. Become a sponsor. There are 13 numbered sponsorship offerings that add fun to the golf game, and choices for donation levels. Sponsorship payments are due by April 24, 2023.
2. Sign up to play and invite your friends!
3. Donate items to the raffle.
4. If you cannot attend, please consider a donation to the BCNAACP Higher Education Scholarships.

HOW TO GET THE FORMS TO US

The forms found on pages 5 and 6 may be filled out using your computer then sent via email to BryanCountyNAACPScholarship@gmail.com. Find forms at www.Bryancountynaacp.org. ABOUT OUR HOST, THE RICHMOND HILL GOLF CLUB

The beauty, variety, and adventure that golf course architecture provides is the form, while playability, walkability, and challenge provide the function. Exceptional golf course architecture balances form and function perfectly. The Richmond Hill Golf Club, with its balance of playability and adventure, is an exceptional course designed by local lover of golf, Ben MacMillan. Situated on the banks of Sterling Creek and in the heart of downtown Richmond Hill, Georgia, the course boasts his deep rooted passion for the game.
